

Irene V. McConaghy
Learning Specialist

Education:

BA in Education, Western Washington University, 1978

MS in Education, University of Oregon, (Through resident master's teaching program), 1985

Administrative Credentials, Lewis and Clark College, 1995

Positions in Education:

Learning Specialist, Hillsboro School District, Middle School, 1984-1991

Child Development Specialist, NWRESO, Placed at North Plains Elementary, 1991-1993

Assistant Principal, NWRESO, North Plains Elementary, 1994

Principal, NWRESO, Middle School, At-Risk, three sites 1995

Learning Specialist, Beaverton School District 1995-2015
3 years Arts & Communication Middle and High School, 3 Years in High School Intensive Learning Center, 13 years elementary Resource Room.

Adult Education:

Adjunct Professor at Seattle Pacific Summer Institute, 1996-1999

Adjunct Professor at Lewis & Clark College in Learning Specialist Program 1995-2000