

REBECCA COREN, M.A.

MAJOR CLINICAL INTERESTS

Attachment, parenting and issues of attachment in adult relationships. Helping parents address and heal old issues that come up after having children, such as anxiety, anger, trauma, neglect or simply our vulnerability as human beings. Supporting parents in lovingly detaching from their well-attached child, knowing when to let go. Lifelong learning for adults, brain science, how our brains are always able to change and essentially rewire, how mindful relationships can rewire habitual dysfunctional behaviors that are getting in the way of healthy relationships in adulthood. Transformation of any kind: becoming new parents, growing a marriage, facing the challenge of addiction, coming out as gay, lesbian, bisexual or transgendered, separation and divorce, grief and loss, spiritual awakening.
